Blow Up the Underground Railway ... Many Persons Hurt ...

Other Foreign News.

London, Oct. 31.—Two terrific explosions occurred on the line of the Metropolitan Underground railway, one at the Paddington station, the other at Westminster. The glass roofs of both were blown out, windows shattered and other damage was done. At the Westminster station all escaped injury, but hurt, none, however, fatally. The nature of the explosive is not known. The dangerous material is supposed to have been thrown from the carringe window of a passing train.

Immediately after the explosion the government inspectors began au investigation. Both explosions occurred at aster at the latter station are substantially as diately followed bytho crash of breaking glass.

A few persons at the stations were cut by the flying fragments of glass. The train pro-ceeded without stopping to Edgemore road station; where it was found that the windows of three third-class carriages in the rear of the train had been demolished, and the broken

bits of glass dashed into the faces of the passengers, some of whom were dangerously cut. Many of the injured were able to go to their homes unaided, but thirty-two were taken to St. Mary's hospital.

The inspectors attribute the explosions to escaping gas from the tanks with which the trains are supplied. The Telegraph and

Daily News both believe that a foul plot ex ists for the destruction of life and property and that these explosions are but foremoners

of what may occur if the dastardly perpetra-

Thanksgiv n : Proclamation. By the president of the United States. A proc.

In furtherance of the custom of this people Arthur, president of the United States, do hereby designate Thursday, the 29th day of November next, as the day for national thanksgiving. The year which is drawing to an end has been replete with evidences of divine goodness, the prevalence of health, the fulluess of harvests, the stability of peace and order, the growth of fraternal feelings, the spread of intelligence and learning, and continued enjoyment of civil and religious liberty. All these, and countless other blessings are cause for reverent rejoicing.

I do, therefore, recommend that on the day above appointed the people rest from their accustomed labors, and in their several places of worship express their devout gratitude to God that He hath dealt so bountifully with this nation, and pray that His grace and favor may abide with it forever.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

There happens to be room enough in this country for Pere Hyacinthe and Mgr. Capel. No one has yet mentioned Ben Butler and Sitting Bull. They look very much alike, and have about the same roar. The democrats would be willing-eagthey could get ral of the cipher business. Mr. Irving said he dreaded the American interviewer more than he did the Atlantic. The average newspaper interviewer and the cyclone, are things that are apt to chill the blood of a foreigner. Another sample of New Jersey justice: Charles G. McCann, of Trenton, a mail agent, stole $6 worth of stamps and 30 cents in money, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1000 and go to prison one year. New Jersey is getting to be a good state for thieves to emigrate from.

There is no place like America for foreigners. It is a paradise to them. Artists and singers come here from abroad to get rich, and they never fail; and now Mgr. Capel is here and will have all his enormous debts paid by a rich friend in this country. .

A rough estimate of the corn crop of the United States has been made by S W. Talimadge, of the Milwaukee chamber of commerce, at 1,621,100,000 bushels, which is the largest ever raised with the exception of the crop of ISSO, which wa 1,754,861,535 bushels. The yield last year was 1,617,025,100.

The St. Louis girls are not so bad as many suppose if they frequently do come up missing. Mary Churchill, who suddenly disappeared some time ago, is down in Indiana, and a letter from her to her father, says sho is well, is carming her own living, and is happy. When a St. Louis girl adopts the good old custom of earning her own living, there is hope for the

For the bonefit of those desiring to emigrate to Dakota and localities in the northwest and far west, the Chicago, Milwankee & St. Paul railway company has published an illustrated pamphlet of twenty pages full of common sense facts and valuable information and statistics which will be sent free of charge, by addressing A. V. H. Carpenter, General passenger agent, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

It is reported that 600 shoemakers in San Francisco have come out for Governor Butler for president. The friends of Butler will bear in mind that there are several thousand more votors in this country beside the San Francisco shoemakers, and when they are heard from it may be possible that the hero of Dutch Gap will not have a unanimous vote.

Of course the business circles of the northwest were surprised to hear of the failure of Culver, Page, Hoyne & Co., of Chicago. The firm had done a very large business in general stationery, printing and lithographing, and was considered above the touch o financial reverses. But the firm became reckless, got into mining speculations, suffered their paper to go a-begging, sold goods on too close a margin to beat other firms, and finally went to the wall. Had the firm been a little more conservative and discreet, and left mining speculations to others, they would not have been compelled to close their doors.

The reading public will probably bear in mind that when Commission Bentley of this state, was asked to resign his office he claimed and persistently held to the notion, that he was driven out of office because he would not shut his eyes and permit the most glaring frauds and disreputable practices to be carried on in the pension bureau. It is not known how much truth there was to the charges that Mr. Bentley made regarding the manner in which he was taken out of office, but the chances are that his statement will not be corroborated by facts. Of course, there have been frauds and disroputable practices in the pension office for years, and probably always will be so long Washington claim agents exist and all sorts of characters are allowed to go on the pension rolls. But | the administration is getting its eyes open and is now doing some good work

Frauds creep into every organization in the world, and it is not surprising that thousands of them manage to become pensioners upon the United States.

> One of the great issues next year will be the tariff question. The democration national convention of next year will doubtless do as other democratic national conventions have done, declare protection an upbuilding of monopolies and a fraud upon the people. It is democratic to believe in free trade, but there are exceptions to the rule, however, and the latest to rebuke the democratic doctrine of free trade is Governor Butler, one of the foremost democratic leaders in the country to-day. He has written a letter on the tariff, and did very much better than General Hancock did in 1880 when he wrote his famous New Jersey letter, in which he called the tariff question "a local issue." Governor Butler says:

DEAR SIR:-In reply to your letter: Free trade is impossible without direct taxation, which the country should not and will not adopt.

You ask my definition of a proper tariff: A tariff to raise the money necessary to pay the public expenditures, and that tariff to be placed where it will best [favor American enterprise and American industry-the protective tariff of Andrew Jackson.

Yours Truly, BENJ. F. BUTLER.

To Thomas Burton, Youngstown, O. Those democratic discussions on the tariff will have a good deal of the Babel confusion about them next year. As the democratic party has no fixed principle except that of clamoring for the spoils of office, it is not surprising that the tariff question "breaks the party all up."

FAILED FOR MILLIONS.

Morris Ranger, of Liverpool England, Goes Under.

Liverroot, Oct. 31. - Morris Ranger, doing business in the cotton trade under the firm nume of Morris Ranger & Co., has failed. The nest intense excitement was created in the exchange when Ranger formally annonneal to the president that he was unable to meet the demands already matured and had saspended payment. Ensiness on the ex-clange ceased at once for the day. Ranger's was one of the most extensive cotton houses in Liverpool, and many other firms and brokers are involved, in America as well as here. Ranger's liabilities are believed to he not less than $3,000,000, of which $1,250,-0:0 will fall upon the United States. Ranger's failure led to but one other, that of R. H., Forman & Co., but the belief is that others are inevitable. It is stated that the collapse was caused by unfortunate speculation. Ranger had heavy short sales, and it may prove that the suspension was to auticipate them. It is not now known what the assets

New Youx, Oct. 81,-The Commercial Advertiser has the following regarding the cotton failure in Livermool, reported to-day: "The cotton firm of Morris Ranger & Co. is one of the largest in England, and is composed of Morris Ranger alone. "The firm was established in 1868. At the house of Fatman & Co., in Broad street, who Mr. Ranger was supposed to represent abroad, it was stated that no news had been received by the firm, and it was not believed that any houses will be in the least affected by Ranger's suspension. Messrs. Fatman & Co. deny having any business relation with the suspended firm, and can throw no light upon the extent of the failure or regarding the parties in this country. Morris Ranger & Co. are reported to have bought in or made settlements for a heavy amount of September and October short cotton, but may have anticipated this by suspending. Their short contracts outstanding are estimated at from 100,000 to 190,000

HENRY IRVING AND MISS TERRY. The Star Improves on Acquaintance. Miss Terry's Actiug.

New York, Oct. 31.-Mr. Henry Irving appeared to a crowded house at the Star theatre in the play of Charles I, Miss Ellen Terry taking the part of Queen Henrietta Maria. Mr. Irving certainly improves upon acquaintance, and in such a drama as that of Charles I, full of strong incidents and wellconsidered poetical thoughts, his situation were at once dramatic and poetical. Mr. Irv ing's voice is full of melody, and with the orchestra adding to its effect, it is certainly harmonious. Miss Ellen Terry, of whom the public have been expecting so much, proved in the earlier part of the play little better than the average walking lady, but in the latter part she proved herself to be an actress of no ordinary ability, and in style and manner somewhat after Miss Coghlan, Both Mr. Irving and Miss Terry were several times vigorously applauded. The acting by the other members of the conpany was by no means phenomenal.

Mulcahey, But Did Not. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 31 .- The friends of Miss Mary Mulcahey, of this city, are much excited over the conduct of Eugene Lyuch, of Philadelphia, a wheelwright by trade, who was to have married that young hady at the church of the Sacred Heart which edifice was elaborately decorated with flowers and filled with wedding guests. They waited for the bridal party in vain, and shortly found that the groom had arisen at 6 o'clock a. m., dressed himself for the ceremony and gone away, not having been seen since. Miss Mulcaboy is of a very respectable family, and is much affected over the conduct of the man whom she was to wed, It will be unsafe for Mr. Lynch to show himself in this city in the near future if the assertions of the mother, father, and brother of Miss Mulcahey go for anything.

Maritime Case Decided.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. St.—Judge McKennan, of the United States circuit court, has rendered a decision in the collision suit between the British steamer Scots Greys and the steamer Santiago de Cuba. Cross actions had been brought for damages by the owners of both vessels against each other. The stemmers, on the 19th day of July, 1879, collided near the Horseshoe buoy, in the Delaware river. The forward parts of both were mashed in, and the Scots Greys was damaged to the amount of $19,500, and the Santiago $15,000. After the case was heard in the district court, a decision was rendered in favor of the Scots Greys. Judge McKennan affirms this finding and orders a decree to be entered in favor of the British ship for in weeding out dishenest pension this amount of damages, and costs, 820,agents, and it may yet see its way clear to | 921.28.

Sr. Louis, Oct. 31 .- Miss Aurelia Larieux, the young lady who eloped from here with Hurd, the sewing machine agent, and who was found by her father in Boston, is at home again. She was asked to explain the reason she had for departing so suddenly, and replied: "I don't know anything about it. The General Denies the Charges of

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A press correspondent called at the St. James hotel to see Gen. William Meyers, and obtain his version f the troubles between him and Daniel B. Vermilye, who charges the general with adultory with Mrs. Vermilye. The general was found preparing to leave the hotel, he said, for the west, and apologized for his lack of time to fully explain the affair.

"The charges this fellow brings against me are entirely false," ho said. "My relations with Mrs. Vermilye have been entirely honorable, and entirely of a friendly nature. I have been a friend to both of them, and the fact that I have been has cost me doar. More than this, I started the Weenis Stone company, and made him its treasurer. He has systematically robbed me and has $22,000 of my money for which he will make no account. Since Gen. Beam secured his arrest for embezzlement in Chicago he has used every effort to get even with me, and this divorce suit of his is one his despicable methods. It was not brought until his wife had begun an action and will be shown up effectually if it ever comes to a trial. His claim that Mrs. Vermilye is living with me is villainously false. I have been stopping here, and you can readily find out at the office whether this is true. It is on a par with the rest of his conduct, and he is stamped by those who know him as an unmitigated liar. "Are you going to Orange, Gon. Myer?" asked

Trazedy. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 31-A special to The Morning Herald, from Batavia, reports a horrible tragedy which occurred in that town, and resulded in the death of a Utica lawyer named Johnson Lynch. It is stated that Mrs. Rowell, the wife of D. W. Rowell, president of the paper box manufacturing company, wrote to Lynch asking him to come and spend a wook with her as her husband was to be absent a week. Lynch arrived at Batavia at 0:05 p. m., and proceeded to Rowell's house, where he are suppor with Mrs. Rowell. About 9 o'clock they retired to a bed-room. Mr. Rowell, who was secreted in the house, having received information of the treachery of his wife, soon after opened the door of the room and drawing a revolver room and urawing a revolver fired, the ball striking the wall. Lynch jumped out of bed and ran down stairs, followed by Rowell, who fired three more shots at Lynch, one striking him in the brain and killing him. Rowell was arrested and taken

Mr. Mahoney talked of a deficiency said to have been left over from Sheeban's comptrollership, and said a combination was being formed to force him out of the canvas. The books were missing from the safe and were hidden under a desk. They show no shortage in the present comptroller's accounts. Mahoney is said to have been driven crazy by the efforts of rival factions to force his removal from office. He was ill with brain fover three years ago when he was running for assessor.

A Question of Geology and Fact. Agrico, O., Oct. 31.—State Mine Inspector Roy has been bere and examined specimens of coal alleged to have been found four hundred feet deep in Clinton, this county, and pronounced it anthracite. He says that the hole has been stuffed, that no coal has really been found; furthermore, that the pleces shown are too large to have been cut by a drill going through coal. Ho is equally positive that no bituminous coal can be found at the depth stated. State Geologist Anton is expected to visit the place, and coal men are still much exercised. Factories Closing Down.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 31.—The manufacturers of railroad spikes have decided to close down their factories for two weeks. The establishment of Dilworth, Porter & Co. has been shut down for the past week, and no little curiosity has been occasioned among the workmen, who claim that the stoppage was not caused by a lack of orders. It is said that the spike munufacturers of St. Louis, Chicago, and Richmond, Va., will also all combine to shut down the factories for a time in order to see what effect it may have upon the market.

Garlington to be Investigated. WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 31. - At the meet-

UTAH UNRIGHTEOUSNESS.

Synopsis of the Report of the Commissioners.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 31.—The report of the Utah commissioners has been submitted, and is not such a strong document as was ex-pected from the remarks of the commissioners. It consists of a brief resume of the history of anti-polygamous legislation, recounts the operations of the past year, repents the recommendations made a year ago for legislation compelling public marriages, disfranchising women, making the first wife a witness against her husband, and providing for a new apportionment, and then announces that if the territorial legislature of single-wived Mormons fails to enact laws that would be hostile to plural marriage, which the single-wived as well as the many-wived Mormons in, the commissioners may be able to tell the government just what it ought to do. The commissioners are anxious not to let this dread secret escape from them prematurely, but from conversation with some of them it is inferred that the reserve apparatus for the destruction of polygumy is the abolition of the present territorial government and the substitution of territorial commissioners, who would enforce the acts of congress, if they could, in the face of a hostile population. Commissioner Paddock expressed the belief that congress could undoubtedly frame laws that would put an end to polygamy, but the thing could not be accomplished at once. His thought congress would persevere in the policy it had adopted, and enact the bill introduced last year embodying the commissioners' recommendations, which was crowded out by

POSTOFFICE AFFAIRS.

Interesting Figures from the Postoffice Department.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct 31.-The total number of registered articles handled in the mails during the fiscal year was 10,459,716 and the estimated total loss $627, which shows a very small percentage of loss to the articles mailed.

The annual report of General Railway Mail Superintendent Thompson shows the number of postal clerks to be 3,855,an increase of 285. The number of pieces handled 3,981,516,210. The annual miles of railroad service performed by clerks was 86,180,430. Of the $600,000 appropriated for special facilities but $154,121.33 was expended and the bollance returned into the treasury. Dur-ing the year there were 114 casualities in which one clerk was killed, thirty-five soriously injured, and forty-two slightly wounded. He recommends that congress sanction by statute law the civil service of the railway mail service, so that clerks cannot be removed except for good cause.

Third Assistant Postmaster General Hazen has propared the estimates for the fiscal year ending June 20, 1885, as follows: Total gross revenue, $47,104,073.31; total expenditures. $50,062,189,60, leaving a net estimated deficiency of $2,958,111.20. The appropriation for 1884 is $44,489,536, which makes the inerease in the estimates for 1885, $5,572,660.66. A year ago the president estimated that under the 2 cent letter rate, which he recommended a deficiency of $3,000,000 would occur, and now an estimate based on the best figures obtainable, shows that he was but $41,000 out of the way.

is well on the way towards completion. This is a unique structure of the Queen Anne style of architecture. The plan was furnished by the architect of our new church edifice. Detailed plans and specifications were also prooured, and followed closely. The design of the owner was to have as much room as possible on the first the r, and to conform the rest to this purpose. -The new Methodist minister, Mr. Barrow, was surprised on last Saturday evening with a "pound party." The weather was stormy, but the attendance was good, and many things useful to the family were left with the parson. How we wish we were a minister, that we, too, might be pounded. The Methodist society here seems to be in a healthy, growing condition. We cordially welcome Mr. Barrow to his new charge.

—The Boss Store—Mr. Herman Millard has sold out his store and stock of goods to the new firm of May & George Boss. We sincerely wish that this new firm may do an lexcellent business. We hope that our citizens will remember that this sister and brother are orphans and should receive the encouragement of all who can give it without loss to them-selves. Indeed, if our benevolence in this direction should cost us a trifle, we should be gamers in the end. -Prof. N. Wardner Williams is now employed by the Congregational society of Whitewater to play on their large and expensive organ, at the usual weekly service on Sunday. Connected with this duty, it falls to his lot to drill the choir weekly. When we consider the high grade of this instrument and the size, culture and wealth of this society, his engagement as organist is quite a tribute of praise to the musical attainmenments of the professor of music in Milton college.

-Perhaps the event of the week past was the surprise given to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Sweet at the house of Mrs. Delia Crandall, in honor of his 71st birthday. A large concourse of triends were present. A black ebony silver headed cane was presented to Mr. Sweet and a purse of money to Mrs. Sweet. Rev. E. M. Dann was called upon to make the presentation address; appropriate replies were made by the recipients, followed by speeches by Rev. James Bailey, Rev. J. C. Rogers and Mr. Lowell. Refreshments were furmaked to the large multitude present. -Mr. Wallace W. Clarke has gone to Merrill, Wis., to accompany his wife on her return home. The Elder Vanderbilt.

From The Hotel Mail. DWilliam H. Vanderbilt ought never to lose his interest in hotels, for his father once kept the Rantan House, New Brunswick, N. J., which was a sort of a canal-boatman's tavern. The house is there yet just as it was in 1821, when the rnere yet just as it was in 1021, when the present head of (the family was born there, and when a sign dangled from the post reading: "C. Vanderbilt, proprietor." There were very few financial giants in those days.

A Weman's Affair.

Mrs. N. H. Small, the wife of the popular deputy sheriff and assessor of Topsham, Me., writes us on May 15, 1883; "That she had been severely aillieted during several years with kidney and liver disease, accompanied with severe pains and backache. Having tried many spealled eures, and medicines, and doctor's prescriptions, without receiving any benefit, and while seeking for a cure, she noticed the advertise ment of Hand's Remedy and decided to try it. Having bought a bottle at Mr. Johnson's drug. store, commenced using it with such flattering results that she continued its use, and after using only five bottles the improvement in her health is so marked that she wishes all who are afflicted in like manner to know of this most valuable and reliable medicine; and she most cheerfully recommends Hunt's Remedy to all, and especially to females who are troubled with the complaints peculiar to the sex." A Family Biessing.

Under date of May 10, 1983, we have received the following information from Mr. Lorenze Londbard, of 18 Charles street, Portland, Maine. Mr. Lombard says: "For several years past i have been troubled with severe backache and pains in the side, and when I would lie down I could not rest well, as it seemed impossible for me to get in an easy position; and my aches an ! pains increased constantly to such an extent that I became convinced that I had a disease of the kidneys fastened to me, and after having used doctor's prescriptions and many of the socalled cures without getting any benefit, I was persuaded by a near neighbor, Mr. Jones, to try Hunt's Remedy, as himself and wife had been greatly benefited by its uses, and many others greatly benefited by its uses, and many others of our acquaintances spoke of its merits in the highest terms. I decided to try inand porchased a bottle at Nichol's drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses of it the pains in my back were relieved, and after taking three bottles my sideache and lame back are cured, and I can truly testify that Bont's Remedy is an article of great merit, and will do all that is claimed for it and I know of many other neonle in Portland who have found a cure in Bunt's Remedy after all others failed to do any good, and I recommend it to all who have kidney or liver disease, hoping that this may be the means of relieving some sufferer who does not know othe merits of Hunt's Remedy.

POT HUNTERS.

How Our State Game Laws are being Violated.

an Organized Effort to Prevent the Wholesam Destructions of Suchs. That the game laws of this state are being violated with impunity is evident from the fact that there are persons in Rock and Dane counties who make a livelihood from the profits of game which they are enabled to take by unlawful means. These parties adopt all kinds of devices and snares, contrary to the laws of the state, that they may make larger returns. Recently an organization was formed in Madison, where there is much complaint occasioned by the frequent violation of the law relating to the killing of ducks, for the purpose of proseouting all violations of the law. By means of this new organization a couple of the citizens of Rutland, Dane county, have been arrested, and their trial is now pending in the Dane county municipal court Complaints of like violations of the law come from the town of Union, in Rock county, as well as from Lake Keshkonong. The Madison Journal in giving an account of the operations of the Ruthand pot hunters says: "The trial of Cheena Haley and C. S. De Jean, of Rutland, for violation of the game laws, which it was saw a more unfavorable October than supposed would take place in the municipal court in this city last Saturday after. noon, was postponed for one week, the defendants giving bonds in the sum of $150 each for their appearance at that day evening, as was mentioned in the State Journal of Saturday. They are young fellows, and in the court were attended by a large number of friends from Rutland, who had come up to see them through their trouble. It has been well known to the sportsmen of this city for several years past, that benting for ducks in the immediate vicinity of Madison was being very seriously impaired by the wholesale slaughter of the fewls by the pot-hunters of the town of Rutland. No move, however, was made to enforce the game law in the premises, and the hunters prosecuted their industry with such profit that it is reported that a number of them have actually become woll-to-do in a financial way. Thousands and thousands of ducks have been annually shipped to the cities, and the industry has been prosecuted of late with great limpunity. This fall, the ganized club for the enforcement of the game-laws, determined to put a stop to the unlawful method annihilating ducks in this county, and to that end detectives were employed. These had been on the lookout for some time, and last Friday evening they came upon Haley and De Jean in the very act of cutting the throats of the ducks, as their heads were thrust up between the cords of the net which had been dropped over them as they were taking the corn purposely distributed for them. The trupping was done in a simple manner. A long not was fastened to two tall poles, which were creeted and two tail poies, which were created and held by means of a rope attached to each. These ropes extended back into two bough-houses where they were held by the two men. Haley and De Jean. When the not had been precied, close to the shore of a pond upon which the ducks frequently alighted, and the ground between it and the water's edge plentifully besprinkled with shelled corn as a bait for the web-footed fowls, the men took their places in their little houses to await the arrival of their victims. As soon as a sufficient number had come up within range of the not, the ropes were quickly loosened and down then went along and killed the captives by giving them a "chp" with a pair of pinchers which they carry for the pur-It has come to light that hundreds of the ducks were often secured at a single haul and during the season car-loads of them were harvested. The detectives, sent out by the local sportsmen, as stated before, caught Haley and Do Jean in the very act of hilling the fowls and immediately arrested them. The defendants have retained Hon. Burr W. Jones to defend them, and it is understood that they will set up the defense that they had a legal right to net the ducks upon their own the time Haley and De Jean were taken, they had in their possession about 150 fine mallards. Many of the farmers of Rutland are banded together as firmly as moonshiners, in the vocation of taking ducks illegally and will defend their action to the end. The penalty for the offense, charged in this case, as prescribed by section 4565 of Grand Mouthly Drawing, which takes the revised statutes of this state, is a fine place November 13, 1888. not exceeding $100 nor less than $5 for each offense, one-half of such fine when collected to be paid to the county treasurer and by him paid into the school fund, and the remaining half to be paid to the informer. The local sportsmen are determined to prosecute pot-hunters or others wherever ending Oct. 20, 1885: they are found in this county, violating the game laws." First Warn Caucus.

WEIMORE-WIZOM. On Wednesday, October 24th, 1883, a matrimonial event of much interest took place in the town of Fulton. The contracting parties were Mr. George Earl Wetmore, son of Mr. John Wetmore, a well known citizen of Bradford, and Miss Cora Wixom, daughter of Mr. B.D. Wixon, one of the prospering farmers of the town of Fulton, in whose spacious mansion the marriego was solemnized. Some sixty or more invited guests were present from the circle of their relatives and most intimate friends, including many from the immediate neighborhood, and Jounstown. Millo Wixon, a cousin of Mr. B. D. Wixon, from Tompkins Co., New York, was also present. Procisely at the hour of 10 a.m., to the music of the wedding march rendered in beautiful style, by Miss Nelhe Pickett, the have such a liberal patronage in the couple, attended on either side by Colonel Wixom, a brother of the bride, and Miss Cora Hoxie, of Cooksville, took their stand at the folding doors, and were united in the hely bonds by Rev. D. E. Jackson, of Emerald Grove, in a short and impressive ceremony, after which they received the most hearty congratulations from the many friends pres-ent. Refreshments of the most elegant and sumptious character were then served. The newly wedded couple immediately after took their departure to meet the one o'clock train for Chicago, where they intend spending a few days. The Late Samner Parker.

Hon. Levi Alden, one of the editors of the Madison Journal, was for many years a neighbor of the late Sumner Parker, of La Prairie, and the following tribute to the late Mr. Parker, published Tuesday's journal, is from Mr Alden's able pen:

On Sunday night last, at his home in La Prairie, Rock county, Mr. Sumner Parker, one of the most intelligent and substantial farmers of that town, passed away, of that fell discase, pneumonis. Mr. Parker was among the early settlers of La Prairie, had built himself up a most desirable residence, and was sur-rounded by every convenience and comfort which industry and means could procure or a cultivated taste could dictate. Though quiet and undemonstrative in his daily demeanor, he enjoyed an extensive acquaintance throughout the country, and wherever known he was highly respected. He was strictly honest and conscientions in all his dealings with his follow-men, and his word was as good as his bond. Ho was never guilty of a disbonorable or discreditable act, and all his transactions with his neighbors were upright and above upright. He was meanable of deception, and his representations of whatever nature they might be, could llways be safely taken at par. Mr. Parker was nover a selfish aspirant for official positions, but be always took a lively interest in public affairs, particularly in relation to the financial and educational concerns of the town of which he was so valued and useful a citizen. Ho ever favored the most liberal expendi-tures for the procurement of the best teachers in the public schools, and was always himself a liberal patron of such schools. He leaves a dearly cherished wife, and a family of five children-two daughters and three sons, one of whom, George Sumner, is member of the present sophomore class of the state university. The untimely death of the husband and father enshrouds this family in sadness and desolution, but in their deep affliction, they have the unbounded sympathy of the whole community in which they live.', A careful comparison of Dr. Price's for "50 Cents on a dollar." and there were planty of people anxious to secure the bargains?—Not the second time, however Well we accomplished our object, and then established a permanent store in one of the busiest towns of the state, the cash sales of which exceed those of any Clothing Store in Janesville. This outlet enables us to buy goods in such quantities as to command the very lowest prices; to take advantage of any large lot that a dealer may wish to close out at a bargain, and to keep our stock free from unsaleable roods that take up room and interest on money. Under these circumstances we can, Will and DO sell goods cheaper than any house in this part of the state; we furnish a much larger assortment from which to make selections and are the only house in Janesville that ever dared to mark goods in plain figures and stick to the price every time, thereby extending a uniform treatment to all. The time of our salesmen is not spent in "wrestling" over the price, but in doing their utmost to please cus-tomers and money will be returned for any goods misrepresented by them. Our Fall and Winter stock is now ready for your inspection and you are perfectly safe in looking it over without fear of

Years ago we almost continually had traveling stores disposng of accumulated shelf worn stock. Of course we sold goods being importuned to buy or make an offer. The prices, in plain figures speak for themselves and we think talk pretty loud. Come and hear them talk. Respectfully, M. C. SMITH & SON, One Price Square Dealing Clothiers.
